Discussion Questions for Sermon-Based Life Groups

Personal preparation: Read the passage, review your outline and think through the questions. With your group, watch the video blog together (www.efcc.org/video-blog).

CONNECTING

1. Which one of the enemies mentioned in the message this weekend is most prevalent in your life today?

GROWING

2. As you think about your response in Question One, give some consideration to how each of the three "Secrets to eating with your enemies" impacts your ability to feast on grace in the midst of, and in spite of, its very real presence in your life.

SHARING

3. Of all the things you shared in Question Two, what's one that you would like to apply this week? Why? How can your group pray for you?

Dining With Enemies
Psalm 23:5 (p. 474)
Ryan Paulson, Lead Pastor

Me → Enemies → Table (Religion)

Me → Table → Enemies (Gospel)

The feast of grace fuels the walk of faith.

- Guest #1: Prevailing pain
- Guest #2: Past failure
- Guest #3: Present sin
- Guest #4: Perceived unworthiness

Secrets to eating with your enemies:

- Remember that you live from love, not for love.
- Focus on the feast, not on your enemies.
- Place all of your dependency on Christ's sufficiency.
