

Bilingual Worship Leader

Reporting Relationships Reports to

- Modern Worship Director

Time Commitment

10-12 hours/week, including:

- Meetings with the Modern Worship Director
- Weekly participation in All Staff meetings and other meetings/ retreats as necessary
- Participation in the life of the body through worship gatherings, etc.
- Flexible schedule to accommodate various events outside normal working hours.

Qualifications

- Commitment to EFCC's Statement of Faith, Mission, and Values
- 5+ years experience
- Fluently Bilingual in English and Spanish
- Loves to empower people
- Ability to lead authentic, excellent musical worship
- Ability to lead a band
- Ability to create chord charts
- Proficient in Planning Center
- Organizational skills and the ability to multitask and prioritize projects while working on a deadline or in a fast-paced environment
- Embodies the following descriptive words: self starter, others-focused, winsome, collaborative, multi-tasker, organized, professional

In a Sentence

The Bilingual Worship Leader partners with and is directed by the Modern Worship & Creative Arts Director to lead authentic worship moments, champion culture, execute strategy, and disciple worship team members in an authentic, engaging, and productive manner.

What Success Looks Like

Worship Leading

- You are exhibiting excellent musicianship and engaging leadership during worship in a way that encourages congregational engagement in both English and Spanish services.
- Worship sets consist of an engaging combination of new songs and heart songs.
- Song sets are consistent with other Modern services.
- You are helping to establish and exemplify a culture of worship, excellence, love, health, and creativity.

Discipleship

- Volunteers are being trained and encouraged to utilize and grow in their skills, both individually and as a team.

Ministry Leadership

- Volunteer Teams are well-equipped.
- Volunteer team members are personally connected with you and you are encouraging connection with each other.
- A positive and encouraging culture is prominent at all ministry events.
- Lead singers are confident in their role and are effectively engaging the congregation in worship.
- A broad and diverse team of volunteer musicians with a heart for Jesus are being recruited, trained, and utilized.

Keys to Succeeding

Musical Worship

- You are consistently developing your musical abilities.
- You are consistently developing your leadership skills.
- You are collaborating with the worship team leadership in planning out weekly worship sets and key moments.
- You are contributing to the collection of potential new songs to introduce to the congregation.
- You are monitoring which songs are connecting with the church.
- You are developing other team members in their musical and leadership abilities.

Discipleship

- You are actively helping recruit new worship team members.

Ministry Leadership

- You are collaborating with the Modern Worship & Creative Arts Director to execute the worship strategy.
- You are cultivating healthy relationships with staff and volunteers.
- You are attending events and initiatives outside of the Sunday worship services to encourage connectivity and build a positive culture.
- You are championing a welcoming environment for the team in all settings.
- You are encouraging healthy relationships between volunteers.
- You are addressing areas of conflict within the team with truth and grace, with the goal being unity and resolution.