Mission Trip Opportunity: Monterrey, Mexico July 16-22, 2023

Join the Monterrey Team to teach children about Jesus at a neighborhood VBS! Our team will work alongside our awesome partners, FundeFam, a Christian community development organization. We will also assist with small projects around the facilities.

We are looking for people who enjoy working with kids, musicians, cooks, game leaders, and anyone with a servant's heart. Ability to speak Spanish is a plus!

Make a difference this summer! Apply today or get more information at the Monterrey trip page at www.efcc.org/missiontrips

A Story of Hope: FundeFam and La Campana

On the outskirts of Monterrey is the informal community of Cerro de La Campana. Home to 5,000 residents, this neighborhood clings to the sides of one of Monterrey's famous hills. As an unofficial community, La Campana has been under-resourced and oftentimes forgotten. School dropout rates, teen pregnancies, and gang involvement has soared throughout the years. And yet, just a few kilometers away is San Pedro Garza, the wealthiest community in all of Latin America.

This disparity and the desire to see the neighborhood thrive drove a group of Christians to form FundeFam, a nonprofit that is making a difference in La Campana. Through academic support, family health and financial education, and teen support groups, FundeFam is seeing lives change in their community.
