

Life on Mission

What if the place you live, the job you have, and even your favorite hobbies aren't random – but a part of God's strategy? What if God has placed you exactly where you are because He wants to partner with you to bring renewal to every corner of the world you touch? A one-of-a-kind mission assignment that requires your exact gifts and personality, and cannot be done by anyone else.

When you embrace this calling, God leads you on a new adventure. Everywhere you go is a new opportunity to see him at work. Every day conversations take on eternal significance. Every neighbor you greet, every coworker you engage, every friend you laugh with is an opportunity to reflect the love and hope of Jesus.

This simple guide will help you plan your first steps to pray boldly, connect intentionally, and love deeply the people God has placed in your life. And the best part is that you don't have to do it alone – we reflect God's love best as a community on mission.

God is already at work all around you, and He can't wait to partner with you!

Neighborhood

Where has God placed you to live on mission?

Who lives on your street, block, or apartment building? How much do you know about them? One of your first steps could be to get to know your neighbors better.

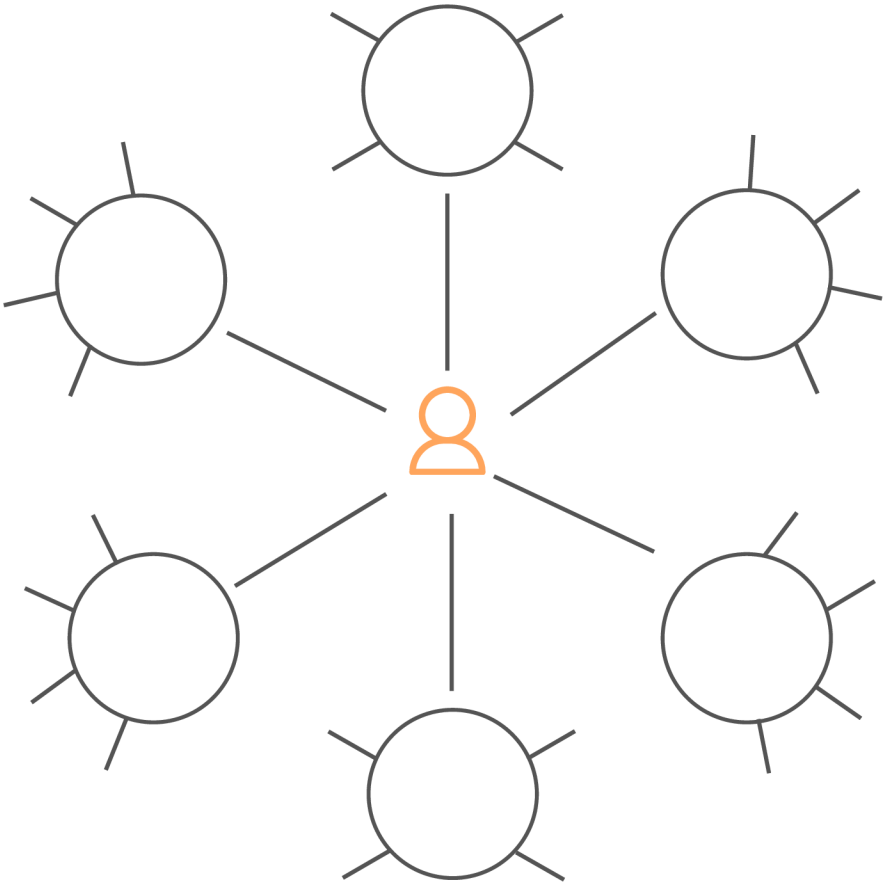

Use the diagram below to list all your closest neighbors and what you know about them.

People

Who has God placed in your life?

Who do you interact with the most in any given week? Map your key relationship circles and the names of the people in them. This is your immediate social network. Include family, workplace, school, hobbies, and places you volunteer. Use the chart below, draw your own, or simply make a list.

Prayer

Who is God asking you to pray for regularly?

Look back through the previous pages at the people in your life. Where are they in their relationship with Jesus? How can you help them take their next step? Ask God to help you discern who He wants you to begin praying for regularly.

Pick the number of people you have daily “prayer capacity” for right now. If you are new to this, we recommend starting with no more than 3-5 names.

I will pray for...

- |    |     |
