SACRED TABLES
Hangry People
1 Corinthians 11:17-26
Ryan Lunde, High School Pastor

A GOOD MEAL keeps you seated at THE TABLE.

If we take the Lord's Supper in a wrong MANNER or wrong MINDSET we compromise the meal and our gathering.

- We don't gather around the table with people we LIKE, we gather with people who need GRACE.
- The wrong manner we sometimes gather in is one of FAVORITISM, PARTIALITY, and PRIDE.
- We often hold onto the GRUDGES that make giving and receiving GRACE impossible.

The SMELL of the company we find ourselves in can cause us to question our PLACE. (Do we "smell" of favoritism, partiality, pride, and grudges?)

If you place your HOPE in people you'll eventually be COMPELLED to leave.

The common HUMILITY of those at the table leads to unbreakable UNITY.

The ONLY THING that will keep you seated at God's table is the MEAL that He has prepared for you and for everyone.

By taking this meal you're saying: "God I'm GIVING UP GETTING EVEN because what you've given me in Jesus is GREATER."

GIVE the same grace that you've been GIVEN.

Who do you need to invite to your house "to the table" this season?
