LIFE GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS
I LIFT MY EYES
PSALM 121

Life Groups are officially on a break and will resume the week of September 12. However, if your group is going to continue to meet, or if you'd like some devotionally-minded questions to use during the week to think more deeply about the message on a personal level, here you go! We should mention that the format we've adopted for the summer is only for the summer. The fall will bring a return of the structure to which you are accustomed.

Re-read Psalm 121 in two different translations and then consider these questions for additional thought, reflection and application.

1. Do you find it easy or difficult to ask for help in general? Why? What about asking for help from God? Why?
2. What is it about God's creative power that helps you turn to Him for help? (vs. 1-2)
3. What is it about God's constant awareness that helps you turn to Him for help? (vs. 3-4)
4. What is it about God's consistent protection that helps you turn to Him for help? (vs. 5-6)
5. How do you resolve verses 7-8 with the reality of living in a fallen world?
6. What's one area of your life you will be asking God for help with this next week?
