LIFE GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS
OH HAPPY DAY?
PSALM 122

Life Groups are officially on a break and will resume the week of September 12. However, if your group is going to continue to meet, or if you'd like some devotionally-minded questions to use during the week to think more deeply about the message on a personal level, here you go! We should mention that the format we've adopted for the summer is only for the summer. The fall will bring a return of the structure to which you are accustomed.

Re-read Psalm 122 in two different translations and then consider these questions for additional thought, reflection and application.

1. There are three things David remembers about Jerusalem. What are they, and how does remembering each of them help you nurture your passion for corporate worship?
2. How often do you pray for EFCC? What do you think about the link between prayer for your church and your passion for corporate worship? How might you grow in this area this week?
3. How would you evaluate yourself when you are at church in terms of being a person who helps fuel others' passion for corporate worship? Do you make it easier or harder for people to want to come and worship together? Is there anything you might need or want to do differently next week?
4. Do you see any other factors David mentions which help you nurture your passion for corporate worship? If so, what are they?
5. What is one thing you can do this week to apply this text in your life? Who will you tell about your plan?
